- 21. Failure to present Written Statement called for by the Court. Where any party from whom a written statement is required fails to present the same within the time prescribed by the court, the

- 20 The J&K Official Gazette, 15th Jan., 2021/25th Pausa, 1942, [No. 42-c court may pronounce judgement against it or make such order in relation to the proceeding as it thinks fit.
- 22. Framing of issues. (1) At the first hearing of the application, after the summons is served, the court shall, after considering the application and written statement, if any, or after such examination of the parties or any person or any document as may appear necessary, ascertain upon what material proposition of fact or of law the parties are at variance, and shall thereupon proceed to frame and record the issue upon which the right decision appears to depend.
- (2) In recording the issues, the court shall distinguish between those issues which in its opinion concern points of facts and those which concern points of law.
- (3) The court may, in like manner, at any time before passing its final order at to, strike out from or in any way amend the issues on such terms as it may think fit.
- 23. Order where parties are not at issue. Where at any hearing of the case it appears that the parties are not at issue on any question of law or a fact, the court may at once pronounce its final order.
- 24. Appearance of parties and consequence of Non-Appearance. (1) On the day fixed in the summons for the opposite party to appear and answer, the parties shall be in attendance at the court in person or or as prescribed in sub-section (2) of section 51 of the Code.
- (2). When neither party appears when the application is called on for hearing, the court may make an order that the application be dismissed.
- (3) Where the opposite party appears and the applicant does not appear when the application is called on for hearing, the court shall make an order that the application be dismissed. However if the opposite party admits the claim or part thereof in which case the court shall make an order against the opposite party upon such admissions and where part only of the claim has been admitted, it shall dismiss the case so far as it relates to the remainder.

- (4) Where the applicant appears and the opposite party after receiving the summons fails to appear when the application is called on for hearing, the court may proceed ex parte.
- (5) Where the application is wholly or partially dismissed under sub-rule (2) or (3) the applicant may within thirty days of such dismissal apply in Form-VIII for an order to set the dismissal aside and the court shall, if it is satisfied that he was prevented from appearing when the proceeding was called on for hearing due to any sufficient cause make an order setting aside the dismissal upon such terms as to costs or otherwise as it thinks fit and may proceed with the case or appoint a day for proceeding with the same:

Provided that no order under this sub-rule shall be made in respect of an application which is dismissed under sub-rule (3) unless notice of the application has been served in Form-IX on the opposite party.

- (6) In any application in which an ex parte order has been passed against the opposite party, he may within thirty days from the date of such order apply in Form-VIII to the court which passed the order to set it aside and if the court is satisfied that he was prevented from appearing when the proceeding was called on for hearing due to any sufficient cause, it shall after servicing notice thereof to the applicant in Form-IX make an order setting aside the order upon such terms as to costs or otherwise as it thinks fits or may proceed within the hearing of the case or appoint a day for proceeding within the same.
- 25. Summoning of Witnesses. (1) At any time after the framing of issues, the court may call upon the parties to produce their evidence in support of the issues.
- (2) The court may, on the application of either party, issue a summons in Form-X to any witness directing him to attend or to produce any document.
- (3) The court may, before summoning any witness on application under sub-rule (2) require that his reasonable expenses to be incurred in attending the court, be deposited with it.
- 26. Grant of time and adjournment of hearing. (1) The court may, if sufficient cause is shown, at any stage of the application, grant

- 22 The J&K Official Gazette, 15th Jan., 2021/25th Pausa, 1942, [No. 42-c time to the parties or to any of them, and may, from time to time, adjourn the hearing of the application.
- (2) In every such adjournment, the court shall fix a day not exceeding fifteen days from the date on which such adjournment is made for the further hearing of the application and may make such order as it thinks fit with respect to the cost occasioned by the adjournment:

Provided that when the hearing of the evidence has once begun, the hearing of the application shall continue from day to day until all the witnesses in attendance have been examined, unless the court finds the adjournment of the hearing beyond the following day to be necessary for reasons to be recorded.

- 27. Right to begin to proceeding. The applicant has the right to begin unless the opposite party admits the facts alleged by the applicant and contends that, either in point of law or on some additional facts alleged by the opposite party, the applicant is not entitled to the relief which he seeks, in which case the opposite party has the right to begin.
- 28. Statement and Production of Evidence. (1) On the day fixed for the hearing of the application or on any other day to which hearing is adjourned, the party having the right to begin shall state his case and produce his evidence in support of the issues which he is bound to prove.
- (2) The other party shall then state his case and produce his evidence, if any, and may then address the court generally on the whole case.
- (3) The party beginning may then reply generally on the whole case.
- 29. Method of Recording Evidence. The evidence of each witness shall be taken down in writing in the language of the court, not ordinarily in the form of question and answer, but in that of narrating, and when completed, shall be read over or translated, where necessary, in the presence of the judge to the witness, and such judge, shall, if necessary, correct the same and sign it.

- 30. Recall of witness. The court may at any stage of a proceeding recall any witness who has been examined and may (subject to the law of evidence for the time being in force) put such questions to aim as the court thinks fit.
- 31. Inspection by Court. The court may at any stage of a proceeding inspect any property or thing concerning which any question may arise.
- 32. Pronouncement of Order. The court, after the application has been heard, shall pronounce its final order in open court, either at once or on some future day, of which due notice shall be given to the parties.
- 33. Signing of Order. The final order shall be dated and signed in open court at the time of pronouncing it and, when once signed, shall not afterwards be altered or added to, save in the case of clerical or arithmetical mistake arising from any accidental slip or omission.
- 34. Statement of decision on each issue. In cases in which issues have been framed the court shall state its finding or decision, with the reason therefore, upon each separate issue, unless the findings any one or more of the issues is sufficient for the decision of the case.
- 35. Compromise of Suit. Where it is proved to the satisfaction of the court that a case has been adjusted wholly or in part by any lawful agreement or compromise or where the opposite party satisfies the applicant in respect of the whole or any part of the subject matter of the case, the court shall order such agreement, compromise or satisfaction to be recorded, and shall pass a final order in accordance therewith so far as it relates to the case.
- 36. Finality of Order. Save as provided in section 52, the order of a court shall be final and binding upon the parties
- 37. Costs. (1) The cost of and incidental to the application shall be in the discretion of the court, and the court shall have full power to determine by whom or out of what property and to what extent such costs are to be paid, and to give all necessary directions for the purpose aforesaid. The fact that the court has no jurisdiction to try the case shall be no bar to the exercise of such powers.

The Career Centre,

Note:-

- This return is to be rendered to the Career Centre (Regional) within 30 days after the end of the financial year concerned by establishments/employers vide their obligation under the Code on Social Security, 2020 (Chapter XIII-Employment Information and Monitoring).
- The main purpose in obtaining the information from employers is to know—
 - (i) the vacancies/employment opportunities available;
 - (ii) type of personnel who are in short supply; and
 - (iii) future job opportunities for providing vocational guidance to the jobseekers and connecting them with the employers. This is helpful in ascertaining the skill needs also. Employers too will be able to call on the Career Centres for getting suitable candidates as per their requirements.
