Ref: Head Office Circular No: WSU/2022/Rationalisation of work areas/Joint Declaration (E-54018)/3638 dated 22/08/2023

Madam/Sir,

Please refer to the subject and circular under reference.

2. In this connection, many references are being received from various field offices regarding SOP on Joint Declaration, as the functionality in the application software has not been developed as yet.
3. Since the IT tool is under development, the Joint Declarations may be taken in offline mode as well. Further, the instructions issued in the SOP under reference, such as Parameters, classification of changes, competent authority to approve changes and documentary proofs to be submitted by members at the time of submission of member profile correction, roles and responsibilities of officers/officials in the field offices, procedures, frequency of changes, authorities to attest the claims in case of closed establishment, timelines for completing the JD, monitoring mechanism and all other relevant directions shall be strictly adhered to.
